

CALL FOR PAPERS: EALS HUMAN RIGHTS AND RULE OF LAW JOURNAL

(VOLUME 1 ISSUE 1)

The East Africa Law Society (EALS) invites submission of papers for the inaugural edition of its Human Rights and Rule of Law Journal (EAHR&RLJ).

The EAHR&RLJ is a peer-reviewed journal to be published annually in both print and electronic form. Its thematic focus is human rights and Rule of Law within the member states of the East African Community (currently Burundi, Kenya, Rwanda, South Sudan, Tanzania, and Uganda).

The Journal aims at providing critical contemporary analyses of the state and progress of respect for and promotion of human rights and Rule of Law in East Africa. It will thus be instrumental in improving our understanding of the region's key human rights and Rule of Law concerns and developments and in turn inform better and more effective policy discourse and other actions for change.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- All submissions should be original and focus on the human rights and Rule of Law thematic area.
- Submissions should, ideally, not exceed 6000 words in length.
- Both individual and co-authored contributions are welcome.
- Authors should check their articles for clarity, repetition, grammar, spelling, punctuation, and consistency as such errors may, where extensive, lead to rejection of a submission.
- In line with our policy, no plagiarism shall be entertained.
- Submissions should use footnotes and follow the Oxford Standard for the Citation of Legal Authorities, OSCOLA.

The completed papers, together with the author's head-shot and a short profile description should be emailed in MS Word form to journalsubmissions@ealawsociety.org with a copy to ceo@ealawsociety.org on or before Friday, 31st July, 2021.

EALS shall acquire a non-exclusive licence over published submissions. EALS does not offer payment for submissions. It does, however, offer a unique opportunity for authors to have their work distributed and considered by a wide and varied audience.
